LOS ANGELES HERITAGE AWARD RECIPIENT

Gensler

Gensler is a global architecture, design, and planning firm with 48 locations and more than 6,000 professionals networked across Asia, Europe, Australia, the Middle East, and the Americas. Founded in 1965, the firm serves more than 3,500 active clients in virtually every industry.

Gensler Los Angeles has been top ranked by Interior Design's "Top 50 Architecture and Design Firms in Los Angeles" and on Los Angeles Business Journal's list of architecture firms in L.A. County. Gensler's Downtown LA vertical campus serves as a creative lab for architects, designers and planners working across industries, from education, sports, aviation, workplace, residential, retail, hospitality and more making an impact in the communities they live, work and play.

Gensler's global perspective and local impact is evident in the renaissance of our city. Projects including the Herald Examiner, Trust Building, LA County Department of Mental Health Administration Building, El Puente, Ambrosia Skid Row Housing Trust, Banc of California Stadium, Fairplex, AltaSea, Metropolis, and the Ritz-Carlton Hotel at L.A. LIVE are helping to shape the fabric of Los Angeles.

AWARD ACCEPTED BY

Based in Los Angeles, Robert Jernigan, FAIA is Co-Regional Managing Principal for Gensler's Southwest Region and ensures that each Gensler office is making a positive impact in its local community. Rob collaborates with cities and the private sector to develop innovative solutions around critical issues affecting our communities including housing and homelessness.

His contributions to the region are recognized both by the profession and beyond. He has been awarded a Presidential Citation by the AIA California Council (AIACC) for changing the face of architecture in Los Angeles, and Coro Southern California presented Rob with the Crystal Eagle Award for civic leadership. He serves on the Boards of Gensler, the Los Angeles Business Council, Central City Association of Los Angeles, Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce, Town Hall Los Angeles, World Trade Center Los Angeles, and the Jonathan Club.
