Los Angeles, CA 90012

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the California Department of Justice, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you to Project Restore's Los Angeles Heritage Awards Gala.

Since 1986, Project Restore has dedicated its efforts to restore historic landmarks that make up Los Angeles' distinctive cultural heritage. This is all made possible through the admirable work of the coalition of community, labor and industry representatives and preservationists. I applaud Project Restore for committing to preserve Los Angeles history, architecture and culture for generations to come.

Today, the following honorees are being recognized for their community leadership and civic contributions: Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, and Linda Griego. Congratulations to the honorees!

Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful celebration and continued success.

Sincerely,

XAVIER BECERRA
Attorney General

Dear Friends:

Welcome to Project Restore's 2018 Los Angeles Heritage Awards Gala.

On this 90th anniversary of Los Angeles City Hall, I applaud your sustained commitment to the restoration and preservation of historic buildings, monuments, and public spaces throughout the Golden State's largest city. Thank you for devoting your time and energy to promoting the cultural heritage and economic well-being of our diverse communities.

Congratulations as well to tonight's honorees – Linda Griego and Manatt, Phelps & Phillips – for their dedicated civic leadership and advocacy.

As a proud Honorary Committee Member for this year's celebration, I extend very best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

Project Restore: Los Angeles Heritage Awards Gala October 11, 2018

Dear Friends:

I am honored to welcome you to Project Restore's 2018 Los Angeles Heritage Awards Gala.

For over 30 years, Project Restore has worked closely with members of the community to preserve the historic and civic integrity of the City of Los Angeles.

I would like to offer my congratulations to tonight's honorees:

- Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, to be rightfully accepted by George Kieffer - for their unwavering commitment to public service. For over 50 years, Manatt has taken a true leadership role to positively transform this community and the many lives it touches.
- Linda Griego, for her relentless efforts to take on vital issues related to health, education, social justice and economic development. Linda has served on a variety of local, state and nationwide boards, and continues to work to improve the lives of Los Angelenos.

The demonstrated leadership and commitment of these outstanding honorees are most appropriate to celebrate.

Thank you for coming out to tonight's L.A. Heritage Awards Gala. I hope the event is a tremendous success.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

Greetings and welcome to the Project Restore Los Angeles Heritage Awards Gala. I would like to thank the organization's Board of Directors, partners, and staff for hosting this wonderful event.

Since its establishment in 1986, Project Restore has been dedicated to preserving Los Angeles' rich cultural heritage by maintaining some of our city's most precious landmarks. I commend the organization for its remarkable contributions to our diverse communities through its restoration projects and for its commitment to promoting sustainable growth. I look forward to continuing to work with Project Restore to serve our residents in the state of California and the 53rd Assembly District in Los Angeles.

I also want to congratulate this year's award recipients for their outstanding contributions to the economic development and cultural growth of our city:

Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP – Los Angeles Heritage Award

Linda Griego, President & CEO, Griego Enterprises, Inc. – Los Angeles Outstanding Leadership Award

Again, congratulations to both Project Restore and this year's awardees. Please accept my best wishes for your continued success!

Dear Friends,

It is with great pride that I join with Project Restore in recognizing tonight's honorees for the Los Angeles City Hall 90th Year Anniversary at the L.A. Heritage Awards Gala.

Project Restore is an invaluable organization committed to the restoration and upkeep of some of Los Angeles' known and beloved landmarks; preserving them is beneficial not only for the City's culture, but also for its local economy. I give a round of applause to Project Restore for their commitment to celebrate the City's rich history and championing it's preservation for generations to come.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude and praise for tonight's recipients, whom have made outstanding contributions to the economic development and cultural growth of the City of Los Angeles. We can only hope that your services and achievements will inspire others to do the same. Thanks to each of you and to Project Restore for holding an event that supports communities in the 54th Assembly District.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

It is a great pleasure to welcome everyone to the Los Angeles Heritage Awards Gala in support of Project Restore.

Project Restore's unique public-private partnership has allowed it to support the restoration and upkeep of some of Los Angeles' most well-known and beloved landmarks. Recently, Project Restore restored the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed home, the Hollyhock House. Project Restore has also embarked on a major restoration and seismic retrofit project of Residence A, another significant building designed by Frank Lloyd Wright. I salute the restoration work you are doing all over Los Angeles.

It is also my pleasure to recognize tonight's honorees: George Kieffer, Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, and Linda Griego, President and Chief Executive Officer of Griego Enterprises, Inc. For more than half a century, Manatt's multifaceted services, contributions and unwavering commitment to public service, diversity and the communities it serves have positively transformed many lives, and no one has reflected Manatt's commitment to public service more than George Keiffer. Linda Griego has worked tirelessly to improve the lives of Angelenos. Her impressive list of accolades includes serving on prominent local, statewide and national boards, as well as key civic appointments championing issues related to health, education, social justice and economic development.

Congratulations to tonight's honorees and my best wishes for an enjoyable night!

Dear Friends:

Welcome to the 2018 Los Angeles Heritage Awards Gala, hosted by Project Restore!

For over 30 years, Project Restore has been dedicated to the restoration and maintenance of valuable city buildings, public spaces, and monuments in the City of Los Angeles in order to maintain their culture and history. I was able to serve for 10 years in our beautiful Los Angeles City Hall as a Councilwoman, a building saved and restored to its former glory by this wonderful organization. The success of project Restore would not be possible without the ongoing support of both public and private partners.

I congratulate the honorees being recognized on this occasion: Manatt Phelps & Phillips, LLP with the award being received by my friend George Kieffer; and Linda Griego, President and Chief Executive Officer of Griego Enterprises, Inc. Thank you for your continued support toward uplifting our community.

Enjoy this wonderful celebration.

MISSION STATEMENT:

A vital element of Los Angeles' heritage can be found in its unique and irreplaceable municipal buildings, which serve the public as civic, cultural, architectural and historic resources. Project Restore is a non-profit organization, committed to the historic restoration and preservation of the civic integrity of the City of Los Angeles.

WHO WE ARE

Project Restore is a public-private partnership, a state-registered non-profit organization 501(c)(3) committed to the historic restoration and preservation of the civic integrity of the City of Los Angeles. We are a coalition of community, labor and industry representatives, preservationists and caring citizens committed to rehabilitating the buildings, monuments and public spaces which define our communities' rich cultural heritage. Project Restore works in close cooperation with the elected leadership of the City of Los Angeles and with the public employers who construct, operate and maintain its facilities.

We are funded by private donations as well as federal, state, and municipal sources. Every year, we hold a fundraising gala. Project Restore's public-private partnership uses these generous donations to support the restoration and upkeep of some of Los Angeles' most well-known and beloved landmarks. Our 30 years of historic preservation work is enjoyed by both visitors and Angelenos alike, keeping the soul of Los Angeles' rich cultural history intact.
